

ĐORĐE ĐOKOVIĆ

SPECIAL ADVISOR TO THE MINISTER

Mr. Đoković graduated from the Union-Nikola Tesla University, Faculty of Business and Industrial Management. In 2007, he was hired as an Associate in the Socialist Party of Serbia. In 2012, he was elected President of the Socialist Youth of Serbia.

Mr. Đoković has given lectures and he has participated in numerous educational seminars on social democracy development and youth involvement in public institutions. He took part in round table discussions and debates about topics such as the Serbian-Albanian dialogue, facing the past, peace and reconciliation in the region, organised by the OSCE, the UN, the Friedrich Naumann Foundation and the Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung.

Mr. Đoković also participated in the World Forum for Democracy and the European Youth Forum in Strasbourg, the No Hate Speech conferences in Montenegro and in Azerbaijan and the World Festival of Youth and Students in Sochi, Russia. He is an alumnus of the Belgrade Fund for Political Excellence and he was a parliamentary candidate in 2016.

Mr. Đoković was born on 11 March 1985 in Valjevo. He speaks English and Russian.

6 Birčaninova St.
11 000 Belgrade

00 381 (0) 11 26 86 022

kabinet@mduls.gov.rs

www.mduls.gov.rs

