

SPECIAL ADVISOR TO THE MINISTER

JELENA PAREZANOVIĆ

---

Mrs. Parezanović graduated in Scandinavian languages and literature from the University of Belgrade, Faculty of Philology, in 2007. She then completed a course at the London School of Public Relations, acquiring the necessary knowledge and skills in communicating with the public.

Mrs. Parezanović began her career as a Junior Officer in the Public Relations Department working for the Deputy Prime-Minister of European Integration. After two years, she became the Special Advisor to the President of the National Assembly of the Republic of Serbia.

From 2014 to 2016, Mrs. Parezanović worked as a Special Advisor to the Deputy Prime-Minister and Minister of Public Administration and Local Self-Government. Her main responsibility was to manage all communication concerning the public administration reform.

The following year, Mrs. Parezanović was hired as a Public Relations Advisor to the Minister of Agriculture. Most of the communication for which she was responsible concerned different kinds of support to private sector development.

In her present role as the Special Advisor to the Minister of Public Administration and Local Self-Government, Mrs. Parezanović again manages communication on all matters pertaining to the public administration reform which ought to help facilitate a professional, modern and an efficient public administration.

Mrs. Parezanović speaks English and Norwegian and has a good command of Russian and Italian. She is a mother of two.

6 Birčaninova St.
11 000 Belgrade

00 381 (0) 11 26 86 022

jelena.parezanovic@mduls.gov.rs

www.mduls.gov.rs

